BREED THEATRE.

Bryant Washburn in Filling His Own Shoes, Pearl White in The Fatal Ring and the other White Form Bill for Today and Tuesday.

Today and Tuesday the Breed will present Bryant Washburn in Filling His Own Shoes. This picture was adapted from Henry S. Rowland's famous novel and is a highly amusing comedy drama depicting an American shoe clerk's adventures in a Turkish harem. The beautiful Oriental maidens all fall in love with him and want him for their husband, but the clerk is in love with an American girl whose charm has won the Turkish prince's admiration and bring the clerk out of his adventures safe and sound.

Pearl White will be seen in the seventh chapter of The Fatal Ring, and the Hearst-Pathe weekly will complete the bill for today and Tuesday.

Harford, where he has been teaching for four consecutive years. Mr. Clement is a graduate of the Manchester N. H. High school and of the Plymouth N. H. State Normal school. In the class of 1907 he took a general course in the Massachusetts State Normal school at Plymouth, Mass., also a course in the marine biological laboratory at Woods Hole, Mass., and is a graduate in penmanship. Mr.
Clement's knowledge is varied and extensive in many lines apart from those required. He has a successful record as a teacher in East Hartford, Essex and Ivoryton, Conn., Woods Hole, Mass., and Tilton, N. H. He is a member of the Congregational church.
With his wife and child he will move this week and will reside in the Dr.
Soule house on Soule street which is to be vacated by S. S. Thompson.

Storm Caused Damage and Bother.
At 11 o'clock Friday evening a veritable cloud-burst did business for 20 minutes over the borough and vicinity.
During that time only a little short of two inches fell. The street of the borough were fit for ferret-bugs. The state road was a torrent to the river manholes. In the outlying districts Hawkins' hill and several other places, the roads were gullied the worst for years. A. H. Jones and for several years drove the U. S. mail star route for Mr.
Jones to Voluntown and Glasco. Mr.
Jones said he was like a cat to him.
He stood high in his studies at the Riverside grammar school. He took a course in the International School of Correspondence, later taking the U. S. civil service examination for the railway. He was a member of the U. S. C. creditable high per cent. and was appointed and at the time of his death was a regular clerk in the Eastern and Hartford railway office. A year ago, from which he never recovered, was the cause of his death.

William F. Whipple.
William F. Whipple, 58, died at his home in Griswold Friday. He was born in Griswold and there was no more news of him. He was a member of the U. S. C. and was a regular clerk in the Eastern and Hartford railway office. A year ago, from which he never recovered, was the cause of his death.

First Solemn Mass.
SUNG BY FATHER MASSE.
Large Congregation of Relatives and Friends Assists at Service in St.
Mary's Church—Sermon by Rev. U.
O. Bellerose.

At 10 o'clock Sunday morning St.
Mary's church was crowded when solemn high mass was celebrated for the first time by Rev. Dieu-Donne Daniel Masse.

Father Masse, M. S., was assisted by Rev. Victor O. Masse of New Bedford and Rev. S. P. Brown of Fall River, Mass., sub-deacon, both being cousins of the young levite. Rev. J. H. Soiferman, pastor of the parish, acted as master of ceremonies. After the regular announcements and gospel for the day, Rev. J. H.
Soiferman, pastor of the parish, addressed the congregation, inviting all to rejoice with Father Masse and his family, and to thank Almighty God for this blessing in choosing a young man of this parish and raising him to the dignity of the priesthood. He pointed out the honor and glory which this noble vocation bestowed on the family. A song was sung by the choir.
Rev. U. O. Bellerose of Taftville then spoke in French, stating that the whole parish was proud of the young levite who has raised one of its own sons to the dignity of the priesthood. The priest, in his address, stated that Father Masse was a young priest—since a great part of the honor of the day's celebration came to the parish couple who gave their son to the church.

Rev. Bellerose expressed an ardent wish that other young men would follow the path that Fr. Masse has followed—being assured that they will have in him a living example of all Christian virtues.

There were present in the sanctuary Napoleon Masse of Fall River, Octave Masse and Alfred Doyle of Moosup and Victor Racine of Sanford, Me. The solemn high mass was sung by Napoleon Masse of Fall River. Miss

Agnes Therrien, the organist, sang most pleasingly O Salutaris.
Assisted by the choir, the choir sang Octave Masse, father and mother of Father Masse, Mrs. Victor Racine of Sanford, Me. and Louis Masse, son and child, Marianna, Mrs. and Mrs.
William McKenna, Mrs. Emeline Paul-hus of Taftville, Mrs. Georgea Paul-hus of Moosup, Miss Caroline Paulhus of Moosup, Mrs. Delima Larriere of Taftville, Cyprien Paulhus of Taftville, and Mrs. Paul Larvin of Taftville. Besides all those, who are relatives of Father D. Masse, there was a large number of friends from Plainfield, Moosup, Taftville, Bait-Taville and Norwich.

After mass Father Masse gave his special blessing to his family, relatives and countless friends.
At 1 o'clock Father Masse was tendered a luncheon by his family, relatives and friends at the Jewett City hotel.
There were nearly 50 guests, among them many of the friends of the family of Plainfield. The following menu was served:

Cocktails
Celery Pickles
Melons
Tomato Bouillon, Cups
Sardines
Potato Chips
